

Kingsland Veterans Memorial Park

Frequently Asked Questions about Memorial Bricks

Can I buy a memorial brick for someone who's not in the military?

- Yes! Anyone can purchase a memorial brick.

Can I say anything I want on the memorial brick?

- Yes!

(Disclaimer: No profanity is allowed. Message must be respectful in nature. Kingsland Veterans Memorial Park Committee reserves the right to refuse any order it believes to be a liability to the positive atmosphere of the park.)

What is the deadline?

- There is no deadline. We will be selling memorial bricks for years to come.

Where can I purchase a memorial brick?

- Kingsland Welcome Center, 1190 E. Boone Avenue, Kingsland (Exit 3)
- Kingsland MSB Building, 105 W. William Avenue, Downtown Kingsland
- Kingsland City Hall, 107 S. Lee Street, Downtown Kingsland

How can I pay for my memorial brick?

- You can pay with cash, check or credit card.

When will my brick be in?

- A specific date cannot be given. Orders for memorial bricks are placed only when 50 bricks have been sold. We install the bricks as soon as we receive them, and will email you when your brick is in the ground. The more bricks we sell, the faster we place the order, so please share this opportunity with your family and friends!

If I buy several bricks, can I have them placed next to one another?

- Yes! We will do our best to accommodate these requests as long as space allows.

For questions not addressed here, please visit our website:

KingslandGeorgia.com - Click on Kingsland Veterans Memorial Park

POC: Trish Jared, Phone: 912-673-1891, Email: pjared@kingslandgeorgia.com