

New Electronic Warning Devices

As we are in hurricane season, Kingsland residents will see new warning signs being utilized throughout the City. The new signs will enhance the safety of our citizens by notifying the public of potential hazards in their immediate area. Kingsland was approved for four portable electronic warning signs through the Georgia Emergency Management and Homeland Security Agency Hazard Mitigation Grant Program.